

A better normal for disabled people

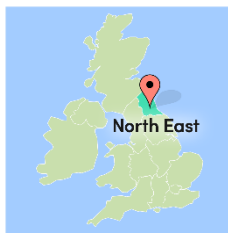

A campaign for the rights of disabled people

The world is changing because of Covid-19.

We want to make sure disabled people don't lose out.

We are calling on organisations across the North East to take action to make sure disabled people are treated fairly.

You can find out more at www.differencenortheast.org.uk

